Dear Sir:

I am writing to you to investigate the possibility of funded research which we might be able to undertake for your organization.

Attached is a brief list of our research interests and I enclose my resume. There are four of us in my research group. We have computer facilities, radiometers, an extensive data base and access to excellent library facilities.

Should you wish, I would be very happy to meet with you to expand on any of these research areas.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Professor
